For existing Partner Salons, potential Partner Salons please contact us for a quote

What do I need to do?

- Be employed in a salon and preferably have completed Level 2 hairdressing qualification
- Use the time with your In-salon Assessor to maximum benefit.
- Plan assessment appointments and arrange suitable models.
- Complete coursework outside of work time.

How will I achieve my Diploma?

Training and assessments will happen in your workplace and be carried out by an ITS Assessor in conjunction with your Salon. You will sign a Service Agreement that details the cost, the agreement is for a minimum of 12 and maximum of 24 months and you must complete within this time. The average time to achieve the Diploma is 18 - 20 months. You will need to achieve 6 units covering:

- Creatively style and dress hair
- Cut hair using a combination of techniques
- Provide client consultation services
- Colour and lighten hair
- Cut men's hair using basic techniques
- Hair colour correction services

What are the costs?

There is an initial payment of £400 followed by monthly standing order payments of £65 payable for as long as you remain in training (see minimum and maximum lengths above)

This covers:

- Registration with City and Guilds
- Welcome pack
- E-portfolio registration
- Access to City and Guilds online assessments (Evolve)
- Access to learning resources
- Training and assessing in conjunction with your salon
