BEING AN APPRENTICE

Before starting on your Apprenticeship, it is very important that you know exactly what is expected of you. We want you to be successful and this can only happen if you are committed and willing to put in the effort.

A hairdressing Apprenticeship is about developing and learning new skills - and not only hairdressing skills. To be a successful hairdresser, you need to develop your skills and knowledge in:

- Maths and English
- Attitudes and Behaviours
- Personal Learning and Thinking Skills
- Employment Rights and Responsibilities
- Life in modern Britain (British values)

To get the most from your learning journey, you are expected to always do your best by:

- Arriving for work on time (or early), looking fresh and ready for work
- Rarely being absent
- Being willing and eager to learn
- Meeting your salon's standards for conduct and behaviour
- Following instructions and procedures
- Promoting a positive impression through your body language and how you speak
- Co-operating and being flexible to the needs of your colleagues and clients
- Showing initiative
- Communicating effectively and politely with your managers, colleagues and clients
- Managing your personal feelings and emotions
- Treating others fairly and with respect
- Taking pride in the work you do

PREPARING FOR VISITS

You are expected to:

- Notify your ITS Trainer/Assessor or Learning Support Tutor (as well as your salon) if you are unwell or need to change/cancel the meeting. Failure to give sufficient notice may result in the salon being charged
- Bring your ITS folder, ILJ, Learning Log and a pen/pencil to all visits/training sessions
- Have completed all the tasks set in the agreed timeframe, including:
 - Maths activities and revision - a MINIMUM of an hour per week
 - English activities and revision - a MINIMUM of an hour per week
 - Other maths and English activities as agreed with your Trainer/Assessor or Learning Support Tutor
 - Logging into your hairdressing e-portfolio at least once a week

- Hairdressing assessments carried out by your In-salon Assessor
 - Practising hairdressing activities such as blow drying, cutting, colouring, setting and dressing to develop and improve your skills further
 - Booking a wide variety of paying clients for practise and assessment (payment may be at a reduced rate)
 - Using social media or advertising to help find suitable clients
 - Preparing and revising for any assessments, online or paper-based theory tests (including maths and English)
 - Completion of On-Programme Tasks (OPT)
- Have updated your Learning Log after every training session or assessment
 - Have asked your trainer or assessor to record written feedback in your Learning Log after every training session or assessment
 - Prepare for your Progress Reviews (about every 12 weeks) as agreed with your Trainer/Assessor
